Bill shares from Proverbs 25:2, about our role as royalty to search things out. God doesn't hide things from us, but He hides things for us to find. His pleasure is in our pleasure of discovery.

the value of mystery bill johnson ministries

The Value of Mystery. God hides things for us, not from us. An intellectual gospel is always in danger of creating a God that looks a lot like us—one that is our size. The quest for answers sometimes leads to a rejection of mystery. As a result mystery is often treated as something intolerable, instead of a real treasure.

why does god hide glory to god for all things

God hides. God makes Himself known. God hides. This pattern runs throughout the Scriptures. A holy hide-and-seek, the pattern is not accidental nor unintentional. It is rooted in the very nature of things in the Christian life. Christianity whose God is not hidden is not Christianity at all. But why is this so? In my previous article, I wrote: Our faith is about learning to live in the ...
